MEETINGS & CONFERENCES

The 'palace of business' - the place for your business meetings in York

The Grand was built in 1906 as a 'palace of business' for one of the most powerful railway companies in Edwardian England.

It was the Golden Age of travel, when no expense was spared in the pursuit of luxury, so it will come as no surprise that The Grand now boasts some of the finest meeting rooms, event spaces and conference facilities in Yorkshire.

At The Grand, we believe that experience is everything. We fully service rooms during lunch adding a new wow for the afternoon, and we serve every table at the same time at events and private dinners.

The details matter, so we ensure the room is set up exactly right first time. Bespoke menu and place cards are created for every event, and our staff deliver immaculate white jacket service at banquets.

Day delegate rates, residential delegate rates and room hire options are all available. Our dedicated conference team will work with you before, during and after your event, meeting or conference to make sure we achieve exactly the outcome you desire.

When looking for a venue in York, there is no better place to be. Contact one of our Event Specialists today for a tailor-made quote.

THE GRAND BOARDROOM

The magnificent Grand Boardroom and adjoining Chairman's Suite offer historic settings for your meetings or event and fabulous views of the York Minster and City Wall.

The board table that once hosted meetings between the railway elite, political players and the great and good of Yorkshire business was so large it had to be cut up to be removed! Today we deploy the space in much more flexible ways, making it suitable for an event, party, private function or presentation.

CHAIRMAN'S SUITE

The Chairman's Suite was the original office of the Chair of the North Eastern Railway.

After board meetings or during particularly gruelling negotiations, he could retire to his suite and dine alone, with close associates or those he was keen to impress – and impress is what this room does very well.

Wood clad pillars, an ornate fireplace and views of the City Wall create an experience to impress.

GIBB, LEEMAN & RIDLEY

A series of executive style meeting rooms each featuring wall mounted plasma screens, free Wi-Fi, air conditioning and tea/coffee machines where delegates can help themselves throughout the day.

These light and airy meeting rooms, which are located opposite the delegate lounge area also have the added benefit of being inter-connected, perfect for breakout sessions. Accommodating up to 14 boardroom, 30 theatre style and 16 cabaret style these syndicate rooms provide the ideal environment for training events, smaller board meetings and those important business discussions.
