Legacy at The Grand, York Celebrates One Year of Fine Dining Excellence

To mark the first anniversary of fine dining excellence at Legacy at The Grand, York, guests can enjoy a complimentary glass of Champagne while dining at the restaurant during September and October.

Over the past year, Legacy has redefined the culinary landscape in York and has quickly become renowned for exceptional cuisine in an intimate setting with unparalleled service, alongside an exceptional wine list.

Head Chef Ahmed Abdalla has led the kitchen in creating exciting new dishes - with modern British and Yorkshire-inspired tasting menus. A true testament to Abdalla's success, Legacy has already gained Michelin recognition and is listed in The Telegraph's Best Restaurants in York.

"Our first year has been nothing short of spectacular," said Ahmed Abdalla. "We set out with a vision to create a dining experience that would not only satisfy the senses but also leave a lasting impression and we feel that we have both achieved and exceeded expectations. We are immensely grateful for the support from our guests over the past year, and we look forward to continuing to welcome diners from near and far for years to come."

Legacy at The Grand, York, will also be increasing opening hours to five days per week from October.
